2. SENTENCES FOR SUNDAY BEFORE ADVENT

Introductory Sentence

The Lord is my strength and my song, and He has become my salvation.

Isaiah 12:2.

Collect for the Week:

God our Father, Your Son came in love to deliver us and to equip us for eternal life: free us from all that hinders us from running the race You have set before us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

So also Christ died only as a sacrifice to take away the sins of many people. He will come again but not to deal with our sins again. This time He will bring salvation to all those who are eargely waiting for Him.

Hebrews 9:28.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

3. LET THERE BE PEACE (ADAPTED)

Let there be PEACE shared among us

5. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

SUNDAY, 22ND NOVEMBER, 2026
THEME: THE DAY OF THE LORD
READING: PSALM 146; AMOS 5:18-24; HEBREWS 9:24-28; JOHN 10:7-18.

We warmly welcome you to this new week.

As we reflect on the Day of the Lord, may God grant us the grace to live in righteousness, walk in His wisdom, remain steadfast in faith, and faithfully await the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Day of the Lord is one of the most profound themes in Scripture, calling humanity to sober reflection, spiritual vigilance and renewed commitment to God. It speaks of the day when God will judge the world in righteousness, expose the works of darkness and establish His sovereign purpose.

While that day holds the promise of vindication, restoration and eternal glory for those who belong to Christ, it also carries a solemn warning for those who live in rebellion against God. It is therefore not a day to be approached with presumption, but with reverence, faith and readiness.

In Amos 5:18–24, the prophet confronts a dangerous misconception among the people of Israel. They longed for the Day of the Lord, assuming it would automatically bring victory and favour to them. However, their religious confidence was disconnected from righteous living.

Their worship had become empty, their society was characterized by injustice, and their hearts were far from God. Through Amos, God declares that He takes no delight in religious gatherings, songs and offerings when they are divorced from righteousness and justice.

This remains a timeless warning to the Church. Christian faith must go beyond outward religious activities; it must be demonstrated in integrity, compassion, holiness, fairness and genuine love for others. We cannot genuinely anticipate the coming of the Lord while deliberately neglecting the values of His Kingdom.

Hebrews 9:24–28 presents the finished and sufficient sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Unlike the repeated sacrifices of the Old Testament, Christ offered Himself once and for all to take away the sins of many.

He has appeared once to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself, and He will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await Him. This truth reminds us that the Day of the Lord is not merely a subject for speculation or fear; it is a promise anchored in the finished work of Christ and His certain return. Our responsibility is to remain in Him, living faithfully and expectantly.

In John 10:7–18, Jesus reveals Himself as the Door of the sheep and the Good Shepherd. He is the only way into the security, life and salvation that God offers. The imagery of the Shepherd and His sheep challenges us to examine our relationship with Him. Are we truly listening to His voice? Are we following His leading? Are we living as people who belong to His flock?

Beloved, the Day of the Lord demands spiritual preparedness.

We must not be distracted by the uncertainties of this present age, nor become complacent because of our religious affiliation or outward observances.

Let our worship be sincere, our lives righteous, our faith steadfast and our love for one another genuine.

Let us reject injustice, pursue holiness, extend compassion and remain faithful to Christ in every circumstance.

The Day of the Lord will surely come. For those who are in Christ, it is a day of hope, redemption and eternal joy.

Therefore, let us remain watchful, faithful and fruitful, holding firmly to the Good Shepherd who gave His life for us and who will come again.
