Ye who long pain and sorrow bear,

GRADUAL HYMN FOR 9.00AM

1 Work, for the night is coming,

Work thru the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flowers.
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work thru the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor -
Rest comes sure and soon.
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,

Work, while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

To walk in all His ways requires knowledge of His word and a willingness to do what God tells us to do and to go where God wants us to go. Many people want God to walk with them where they want to go! But to walk with God we must follow His lead and go where He goes!

SERVICES THAT ARE ACCEPTABLE TO GOD- Rom.12:1, 8.

1. Service with unparallel love for the Master — e.g. David's three men who hazarded their lives to satisfy the longing in their master's heart- II Sam.23:14-17). Our love for God must be above all things
2. It must be sacrificial—it must cost you something- II Sam.24:24; Mk.14:6-9.
3. Service beyond self — selfless service –Philippians 2:19-23; Gal.2:20.
4. Service characterized by fervency — not lukewarm or sluggish service- Rev.3: 15-16
5. Service rendered with love for souls and the Kingdom and with eternal value-Psalm .126:5-6; Hebrews.6:10.
6. Service did willingly and cheerfully -Rom.12:8; 2 Cor.9:7.
7. Service is done with good motives and intentions — holy and acceptable –Romans 12:1-2
8. Service did, not with eye service or as men pleaser but unto the Lord- Col 3:22-24

As seen in Matt 25:31-45, acts of mercy are what should our lives as Christians. Religious practices devoid of mercy, care, love and compassion to others are not acceptable to God. We must not just be seen going to church, our way of life should also reflect acts of love to others. We do not have any excuse to neglect those who really have needs among us.

acceptably. Our God is not a God of 'everything goes'. We all serve God in one way or the other, but have we paused and thought for a moment whether the kind of service we offer unto God is acceptable to Him? Serving God is more than just coming to church to give our offerings to God. It entails our entire life; it involves the way we talk, treat others, manages the resources we have, our mindset, opinions, imaginations, and beliefs.

Our Bible passage, Matthew 25:31-46 shows that a time is coming when God shall judge the world. God will separate His obedient followers from pretenders and unbelievers. Jesus made it known that the real evidence of our belief is the way we act and treat others. The concept is serving God by serving others. To treat all persons we encounter as if they are Jesus is no easy task. What we do for others demonstrates what we really think about Jesus' words to us.- feed the hungry, give the homeless a place to stay, visit the sick. How well do we our actions separate us from pretenders and unbelievers?

What does God require of us?

“He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?” (Micah 6:8). God requires that we do justly. To do justly means to behave justly. Behaving justly includes treating people fairly in an even-handed manner, without favouritism, prejudice or self-interest. We all want to be treated justly. So we ought to treat others just as well. God requires that we do so. “Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Execute true justice, show mercy and compassion, everyone, to his brother’” (Zechariah 7:9). “For I, the LORD, love justice” (Isaiah 61:8). “To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice” (Proverbs 21:3).

God requires that we show mercy. Being merciful means to be kind and compassionate which results in a forgiving attitude toward others. To love mercy means to be wholeheartedly committed to mercy. Even a selfish person wants to receive mercy! But someone who loves mercy is thankful for the mercy God extends to him and wants to pass that mercy on to others. God wants us to be merciful. “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy” (Matthew 5:7). “For judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment” (James 2:13).

God requires that we walk humbly with Him. Our walk is our way of life. To walk with God means to walk in all His ways and to be in daily fellowship with Him. “And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I command you today for your good?” (Deuteronomy 10:12, 13).
