2. SENTENCES FOR TRINITY X

Introductory Sentence

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope of which He has called us. Ephesians 1:17-18.

Collect for the Week:

Almighty Father, whose Son Jesus Christ has taught us that what we do for the least of our brethren we do also for Him; give us the will to be the servant of others as He was the Servant of all, who gave up His life and died for us; but is alive and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

For God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a Spirit of power, of love and of self-discipline. II Timothy 1:7.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

3. LET THERE BE PEACE (ADAPTED)

Let there be PEACE shared among us
Let there be Peace in our hearts
May NOW your Peace sweep this church
Cause us O Lord to Arise

Let there be Peace shared among us
Let there be Peace.

5. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 8TH AUGUST, 2021

THEME: SERVING OTHERS

READINGS: PSALM 119:97-112; 1 CHRONICLES 29:1-9; ACTS 2:41-47; MATTHEW 25:31-46.

"Then they also will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to You?' 45 Then He will answer them, saying, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.' Matt 25:44-46

Serving others is the theme of our Thought for the Week and it is by far not the least of the many themes we treat every Sunday in this corner; its importance hinges on the fact that serving humanity is a proof of any Christian's claim to knowing and serving God. As a matter of fact, the word Liturgy which theologically describes our Church worship/service derives from the Greek Leitourgia and its Latin derivative Liturgia which mean public service. Serving others is therefore the heart of our religious worship. We cannot claim to know and serve God if we lack the inward sight to see Him in humanity.

We are all innately self-centred, thinking first about our own interests. That's why we must be 'transformed by the renewing of [our] minds' (Romans 12:2 NIV). Psychologists talk about natural behaviour and learned behaviour. When you're naturally negative, you must learn to be positive. When you're naturally fearful, you must learn to be courageous. When you're naturally selfish, you must learn to be generous.

These days, we're getting to a point in the Church of God where you cannot but wonder what people do with the sermons they hear day in, day out. People's unwillingness to serve God through the Church is becoming trendy. A particular Vicar gave 2 nomination forms to each of about 10 societies or more in the Church. At the end of the day, only 6 people returned the form indicating interest to serve. And yet, everybody in the Church expects God's blessings. When they see some others prosper, they begin to wonder why God is so partial. Ask people why they don't want to avail themselves for service, the whole range of their answers bother on selfishness - I, me and myself.

The Bible tells us in Gal. 6:7 - Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. God wants you to go through life looking for opportunities to bless others: 'Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith' (Galatians 6:10 NKJV). And you're not just to do it to people, you're supposed to do it through people and unto the Lord. 'Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, with goodwill doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men, knowing that whatever good anyone does, he will receive the same from the Lord' (Ephesians 6:6-8 NKJV). That means what you make happen for others, the Lord will make happen for you!

The fact is, we're all essential to God's plan. The Bible says, 'God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as he pleased' (1 Corinthians 12:18 NKJV). God sets and God allocates! So seek him and you'll find your assignment. What does God expect of us in service? Radical commitment. 'Give up your own way, take up your cross daily, and follow me.' Luke 9:23 NLT

Here are three Bible examples of radical commitment:

- (1) Commitment on the job. In the past, employers appreciated their workers, and workers valued their employers and their jobs. Today's workplace is often adversarial, with employees criticising their bosses and doing the minimum required to get by, while many bosses have become increasingly demanding, taking their workers for granted. This isn't God's way. His way calls for mutual commitment between management and labour. Paul says: 'Obey your human masters...as though you were serving Christ... Do your work... cheerfully, as though you served the Lord, and not merely human beings' (Ephesians 6:5-8 GNT).
- (2) Commitment at church. Many Christians have adopted a cafeteria-style approach towards church. We pick what we like and leave what we don't. But membership in Christ's church involves a covenant relationship with a body of believers who watch over, cherish and pray for one other, and fulfil the great commission together (see 1 Corinthians 12:12-31). This kind of commitment characterized the early Church that we read about in Acts chapter 2. The Bible tells us Now all who believed were together, and had all things in common, 45 and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need. Acts 2:44-45 (NKJV).
- (3) Commitment to Christ. Christ is not looking for wishy-washy, 'lukewarm' followers (see Revelation 3:16). He told the crowd, 'If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross daily, and follow me' (Luke 9:23 NLT). That means you no longer follow your own wishes and will, you follow Christ and his will. That's radical commitment, and you are called to it.

The Church is not looking for rabble-rousing rascals to fill the Council. There are people who take delight in scuttling progress; they just deliberately put up attitude that will discourage the Vicar/Pastor and others in their progressive efforts. If such people find their ways into the Council, they must be ready to change. In some big churches, societies will look for good fighters to represent them on the Council – they tell them, go and stop all the nonsense they are doing there. They come and at the end of the one-year tenure, they discover that it is not as they thought. They won't pick form again; and that is because they were ab initio not inspired by spirit of service.

Serving in Church leadership position requires responsible thinking and exemplary lifestyle and attitude. The Council does not need anybody that cannot be trusted for support and encouragement. Sometime ago, the Diocesan Authority released a circular detailing the requirement of those who should qualify to serve in the Church Council. These requirements include regular attendance of services, prayer meetings, Bible Study and other spiritual programs of the Church; chaste conduct; non-membership of occultic groups etc.

Let me say here that to be a Council member is to be a city set on a hill that cannot be hidden. If you sneak into beer joint or club with friends, you may think your friends don't know you are not fit for Church leadership position, I assure you they know. Change your way or opt out; your life must be consistent with the Gospel we preach.

In summary, let us list out what service to others means:

Service is character

Service is serving God through others (serving humanity)

Service means sacrifice

Service means generosity to God and humanity

Service means radical commitment to your job, the Church and Christ

Service means hardwork; no place for laziness in the service of God

Service means responsible thinking and exemplary lifestyle

Service means selflessness

Service means willingness that adds up to gladness in service.

Let me leave you with King David's question in 1 Chron.29:5 - Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the Lord? and the result of David's example inspired the "leaders of the fathers' houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king's work" to give willingly. The Bible says in v.9 of same chapter - Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had offered willingly to the Lord.

I pray the Lord God will grant us the joy of service unto Him through others. Amen.
