2. SENTENCES FOR TRINITY XIV

Introductory Sentence

So faith, hope, love, abide, these three, but the greatest of these is love. 1 Corinthians 13:13.

Collect for the Week:

Lord God, You have taught us that anything we do without love is worth nothing, for whoever lives without love is counted dead before You; send Your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues: grant this for the sake of Your Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope and love, and that we may obtain that which You promise, make us to love that which You command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Post Communion Sentence

Greater love has no man than this, that He lay down His life for His friends. John 15:13

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour

SUNDAY, 5TH SEPTEMBER, 2021

THEME: THE PERFECT GIFT OF LOVE

READINGS: I CORINTHIANS 13:1-13, LUKE

10:25-37, 1 John 4:7-21

Introduction: Love is one of the warmest words in the English language, and that God is love is one of the most sublime, uplifting, and reassuring truths known to mankind. Love is His nature. It is not merely a friendly attitude He projects. It is the essence of His being. He is always going to act toward us in love because He cannot do otherwise. Love is the way He is. Knowing God who is love should make us a more loving and giving person. Whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. The call to love should not be a difficult call for a child of God. This is so because we have:

- Providentially experienced God's love. Through the loving kindness of God, we've received grace, mercy and acceptance (a judicial ruling) and been made right.
- Spiritually we've been awakened to God's love. Without His love to call us to salvation and understanding of His kindness, we would be living in "darkness" and "Blind" to His love. Yet, he awakened us.
- Habitually we are receiving His love. His graciousness is given to us every single day in a million ways

His love in our lives is now the fuel in the tank to love others. We are now called to simply give what we have received from God even without merit. To show the world the heart of Love the father (God) has for all people. This is a big call that we must wake up to with every sense of seriousness and urgency. If we can't show the world the love of God, we can't successfully bring them to God.

1. The Source of Perfect Love: John begins by saying, "Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God." Just as God is the source of life, God is also the source of love. And while God is the source of emotional love and friendship love and physical or romantic love, the love John is talking about in these verses is agape love, that sacrificial, wilful, and divine love that can only be produced in a person's life by God. That's why John goes on to say that "everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. But the one who does not love does not know God, because God is love. If God only dealt with us on the basis of His justness, then He would have to convict every one of us of our sin and send us straight to hell. But because even His justness operates through the filter of His love He has provided a remedy for our sin through the sacrifice of His one and only Son, Jesus Christ. That's why Jesus spoke those infamous words in the third chapter of the gospel of John: "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16 (NIV). Love doesn't get any more perfect or complete than that! Aren't you thankful today that God is love? Aren't you thankful today that God is the source of perfect love?

2. The Start of Perfect Love: Not only is God the source of perfect love but He is the One that got it all started. We are able to love God and others because God first loved us. The apostle Paul explained God's love to the Christians in Ephesus like this: "And you were dead in your trespasses and sins...But God, being rich in mercy because of His great love with which He loved us perfect love but His is the One who started perfect love by loving us even when we were dead in our trespasses and sins. The point here is since God, in His great love and mercy, graciously demonstrated His love in sending His one and only Son as a sacrifice for our sin, then those of us who claim to know and love Him should follow His example by loving one another with the same kind of sacrificial love. And He has made it possible for us to do just that because He first loved us. He's the source and the start of perfect love.

3. The Staying of Perfect Love: No one has seen God the Father at any time, and since God the Son is no longer visibly present with us, the only way for people to see God's love is through us. In other words, God's unseen or invisible love is now displayed through the seen or visible love of believers. Or as one commentator puts it: "The love that originated in God and was manifested in His Son is now demonstrated in His people." We've all probably heard the old saying, "We may be the only Bible some people ever read." Well, that's true. But think about this: We may also be the only demonstration of God's love that some people ever see. What kind of demonstration of God's love have people seen in your life this past week? I believe that's why John makes such a big deal in verses twelve through sixteen (see the readings) about the staying of perfect love. The word he uses to describe the staying of perfect love should be a very familiar word to us by now from this epistle – remain or remains. In fact, in these five verses he uses the word six times. In other words, the person who continually demonstrates a life pattern of divine and sacrificial love for other people is a person that knows and loves God and remains in God and God remains in that person.

4. The Sign of Perfect Love: John concludes this passage by affirming again, that perfect love is a sign of true relationship with God. Look at what he says in verses twenty and twenty-one of I John chapter 4 "For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen. And he has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister". God's perfect love is a blessing for us to experience in our own lives as well as a wonderful joy and responsibility for us to share with others. Perfect love is a complete and mature love that reflects the nature of God and the work of Christ on the cross that flows through the lives of believers through the indwelling power and presence of the Holy Spirit to all those around us.

Conclusion: ....."On these two commandment hang all the law and the Prophets". This is a phrase we are so familiar with and hear during communion every Sunday. Everything else hangs on these commands of love. Whatever else there is in the Christian faith and in the life of obedience, it all hangs on this. But even more amazing is what Paul says in Romans 13:8–10, "Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbour has fulfilled the law. For this, 'You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not covet,' and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbour; love therefore is the fulfilment of the law."

Our nation is permeated with a spirit of varying degrees of hatred and rancour and mean-spiritedness. Inside the church we have differences that call for deep and real and relentless love toward one another. May the Lord use

HYMN FOR DOXOLOGY - (I.O.M 309 TRANSLATED)

1. My spirit on Thy care,
Blest Saviour, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair,
For Thou art love divine.
2. In Thee I place my trust,
On Thee I calmly rest;
I know Thee good, I know Thee just,
And count Thy choice the best.
3. Whate'er events betide,
Thy will they all perform:
Safe in Thy breast my head I hide,
Nor fear the coming storm.
4. Let good or ill befall,
It must be good for me;
Secure of having Thee in all,
Of having all in Thee Amen
