2. SENTENCES FOR LENT V

Introductory Sentence

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord, I know them and they follow me. John 10:27.

Collect for the Week:

Loving Father, You delivered and saved us all by the passion and Cross of Your Son Jesus Christ: grant that by steadfast faith in the merits of His sacrifice we may find help and salvation, and may triumph in the power of His victory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collect for the Season:

Almighty and merciful God, You hate nothing that You have made and forgive the sins of all those who are penitent. Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, we may receive from You, the God of all mercy, perfect forgiveness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? What does a believer have in common with an unbeliever?.

II Corinthians 6:15.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

5. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK SUNDAY, 3RD APRIL, 2022

THEME: THE OLD AND THE NEW COVENANTS
READINGS: PSALM 22:23-29; JEREMIAH 31:31-34; HEBREWS 9:11-14; JOHN 12:20-32.

It is in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ that we welcome the entire congregation of this great Cathedral to the presence of God on this first Sunday of the fourth month of the year 2022 and fifth Sunday in the penitential season of Lent. It is our prayer that the mercy and love of God that brought us this far in our journey through the year shall continue to tabernacle with us and see us to the end of it in the name of Jesus. Amen.

The theme of our meditation today is The Old and the New Covenants, and because the topic has been thoroughly treated in the Diocesan Lenten Manual, which majority of us hopefully have, the focus is herein shifted to how we can appropriate the inherent benefits of the New Covenant which came in as a result of the inadequacies of the Old one.

A covenant is a relationship initiated by God to which a body of people responds in faith. The two most prominent Covenants that guide the Christian faith are the Old Covenant and the New Covenant.

The Old Covenant is the one given by God to the Israelites in which He promised that they would be His people to bring all the nations of the world to him. In this Covenant, God required the chosen people to be faithful; to do justice, to love mercy and to walk humbly with Him.

The Old Covenant, as the name goes, is to be found in the books which we call the old Testament. The rules guiding this commandment are shown most clearly in the Ten Commandments.

The New Covenant, on the other hand, is the new relationship with God given by Jesus Christ the Messiah to the Apostles; and, through them, to all who believe in Him.

Christ the Messiah in this Covenant promised to bring us (believers) into the Kingdom of God and give us life in all its fullness, but however commands us to believe in Him and keep His commandments.

"Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah .... but this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the Lord. For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more." (Jeremiah 31:31-34; NKJV)

The Bible in Hebrews 9:15 tells us that Christ is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. Since eternal life comes through Christ of the New Covenant, it behoves us to care about how we should live under this Covenant that offers life in the place of death.

The most essential principles guiding the New Covenant are the Summary of the Law and the New Commandment as taught and given to us by Jesus Christ.

The summary of the Law teaches that we should love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our mind and with all our strength; and also love our neighbours as ourselves. More like a corollary to the Summary of the Law is The New Commandment which teaches us to love one another as Christ loved us. (John 13:34)

From this Summary and the New Commandment, one can reasonably say that living under the New Covenant means living in love for God and mankind.

Principles for Living a Life of Love:

We love God because He first loved us. God's action of manifesting His love to us through His Son demonstrates the truth that love must be exercised. Since God acted in love toward us, believers must act likewise by showing godly love to others through the following means among others:

- i. Practical Love (1 John 3:11, 16-18; 4:7-21; Ephesians 5:2; 1Corinthians 13; John 15:17) God's love to us is the greatest love possible. We should, in turn, show our love for others by our words and actions.
- ii. Giving (2 Corinthians 9:6-8; Proverbs 3:9-10; Luke 6:38) We should give cheerfully to God the first part of all we earn. We should also give to others unselfishly.
- iii. Evangelism and Mission (Psalm 126:5-6; Matthew 28:18-20; Romans 1:16-17; 2 Corinthians 5:11-21). We should be busy telling others about the love of God and His plan of salvation. We should share in the work of foreign missionaries by our giving and prayers.
- iv. Communication (Ephesians 4:22-29; Colossians 4:6; James 3:2-13; Isaiah 50.4) We should have control of our tongues so that we will not say things displeasing to God. We should encourage others and be kind and helpful in what we say.
- v. Friendliness (Proverbs 18:24; 17:17; Psalm 119:63) We should be friendly to others, and we should be loyal to those who love and serve God.

14. MINISTRIES & FELLOWSHIPS

A. Children's Ministry

Parents are requested to send their children to the Sunday School with Bibles, Note Books & Biro. Please instruct your children to remain in the Sunday School and not wander about looking for things to buy. Children are better and safer in the Sunday School.

Now, if the failure of the Old Covenant law to deliver salvation necessitated the New Covenant with its higher demand, then we certainly need the help of the Holy Spirit to enable us do the will of God. And the only way to achieving this is for believers to walk in the Spirit as we are admonished in Galatians 5:16.

Paul tells us in the same chapter that if we are led by the Spirit, we are not under the law. This means that we have a Guide in the Holy Spirit that comes to indwell us upon our acceptance of Jesus into our life. We can say conclusively again that to live under the New Covenant is to walk in the Spirit.

May God grant us the grace and enablement of the Holy Spirit to live as children of Covenant to His praise and glory. Amen.

HYMN FOR DOXOLOGY - (CONH 491)

1. Let Your blessings, Lord, attend us,
As we go out of this place,
And abiding in Your presence
Basking in Your joy and grace.
2. Let us in Your sight find favour
In all on which our hands lay
Make Your face Lord shine upon us
As You lead us on our way.
3. May Your heavenly peace surround us
Turn our darkness into light,
Give us strength, now and forever
So, to live within Your might.
4. God, our compassionate Father,
Look upon us with mercy
Let Your Name receive our praises
Now and for eternity. Amen.
