Introductory Sentence

The end of all things is at hand; therefore keep sane and sober for your prayers. 1 Peter 4:7.

Collects for the Week:

Eternal God, the King of Glory, You have exalted Your only Son with great triumph to Your Kingdom in heaven. Leave us not comfortless, but send Your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to the place where Christ is gone before, and where with You and the Holy Spirit He is worshipped and glorified, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

And teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always to the very end of the age. Matthew 28:20.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

JUSTIFICATION FOR SOCIETY MEMBERSHIP

The desirability of society membership is traceable to the Godly advice of Jethro to Moses his son in law as he administered the huge population of the Israelites in the wilderness.

“MOREOVER THOU SHALL PROVIDE OUT ALL THE PEOPLE ABLE MEN, SUCH AS FEAR GOD, MEN OF TRUTH, HATING COVETOUSNESS AND PLACE SUCH OVER THEM, TO BE RULERS OF THOUSANDS AND RULERS OF HUNDREDS, RULERS OF FIFTIES AND RULERS OF TENS” EXOD. 18:21.

Beloved to the glory of God AVMCC is a fairly large congregation and as the Israel of God today Gal. 6:16 we must follow the Bible standard as expantiated fully in Exodus 18:17-27 for the following reasons:

1. It is good to be in society vs. 17.
2. The blessings of joining a society far outweighs the burden if any.
3. The burden if any is light because it is of Christ and not of man – Matt. 11:28-30.
4. The Priests will not wear out in attending to large congregation as it is not possible to know everybody vs 18.
5. The people will not wear out as their matter receive the attention of sectional leaders with a referral of major matters to appropriate quarters vs 18.
6. It is a Godly counsel to be a member of a society vs 19.
7. It is an avenue to learn more of the ordinances of God and His laws vs 20.
8. It affords the opportunities of knowing the way of God better as seminars retreats, visitations, fellowships, fasting praying are arranged vs 20.
9. It points us to the work which we have to do vs 20.
10. It enables the Priest to focus more on Prayer and the word of God which of course is their major assignment Acts 6:4.
11. It allows the church to maximize the potentials of spiritual gifts and explore talents of members using also their professional expertise to enhance the standard of the Church vs 21.
12. It allows for matters to receive urgent and timely attention vs 22.
13. It makes the work in the house of God to be EASY and not become a BURDEN vs 22.

5. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 29TH MAY, 2022

THEME: LEADERSHIP GIFTS IN THE CHURCH

READINGS: EPHESIANS 4:1-13, JOHN 16:12-24, MATTHEW 20:20-28

INTRODUCTION: After dying for our sins on the cross, our Lord Jesus ascended up to Heaven to be enthroned at the right hand of our heavenly Father (Acts 1:9-11; Ephesian 1:20-22). From that place of authority He gave leadership gifts to the Church. He gave apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers for perfecting (equipping) the saints (Ephesians 4:11, 12). The Greek word translated 'perfecting' in Ephesians 4:12 means to 'repair' the damage found in new believers (caused by sin); 'prepare' and 'equip' the believers to do works of service in the Church. Leaders train the church members so the members can do the work of the ministry and thus fulfill Christ's will for the Church. They bring leadership for ministry to the Church. They lead by example, and they have different areas of leadership. The leadership gifts are often called the fivefold ministry of the Church. These five gifts empower the Church for ministry to the body and to the world. They are on the front lines of their areas of ministry to the Church.

PURPOSE: We often get so excited about discovering our gifts we forget their purpose within the body of Christ. After Paul gives the list, he describes their purpose (Ephesians 4:12-16). I see four purposes throughout these verses that pinpoint the purpose of the fivefold ministry/leadership gifts.

- A. First, Paul says these gifts equip the saints for ministry. They give us the ability to serve Jesus, one another, and people in our sphere of influence. They guide us into effective ministry. They teach us how to minister to others with our gifts.
- B. Second, they build up the body of Christ. Elsewhere in the New Testament, several apostles described the church as a holy building, a house or Temple for the Lord (1 Corinthians 3:9-10; 2; 1 Peter Revelation 21-22). The New Testament talks a lot about building one another up, encouraging one another in the faith.
- C. Third, they help us attain unity in the body of Christ. Without the unity of the Spirit, we would be going in different directions. We would not be a body. We would have different versions of the faith. But we cannot move forward for Jesus without unity. These five ministries keep us together. Through teaching and guiding everyone in the Church, they lead us into unity of the faith and the body. They guide us into proper doctrine and keep us focused on Christ. This unity includes gaining knowledge of Jesus. This is not just had knowledge, knowing facts about Jesus. But they lead us into an experiential and personal knowledge of Jesus in our lives. We don't just know about Him. We know Him.
- D. Finally, they lead us into maturity in Christ. Through these five ministry gifts, we become more like Jesus. We become complete in holiness and righteousness. We don't get tossed around by every wave of teaching. We know what we believe and why we believe it. We combine truth and love. Truth cuts to the core, and can drive people away from the faith without love. Love seeks to cover over sins instead of sharing the truth of why they are so dangerous. We need the approach of love while we tell the truth.

Offices and Function

1. Apostles: An apostle is a person sent by God to do His work. We get a better understanding of an apostle when we see how they functioned in the New Testament. Everywhere you saw apostles like Paul or Peter, they were advancing the gospel in new places the Church had never been before. Peter ministered to the Jews while Paul ministered to the Gentiles. The debate about apostles lies in understanding to eras of apostleship. While apostles in the New Testament and today pioneer new works for the Church, New Testament apostles also had authority to write Scripture. Today's apostles do not have that authority. So what do today's apostles look like? We know them today as missionaries. Most apostles start new works in other countries or breaking new ground for the Church in ethnic areas. They spread the gospel by finding ways to connect to new cultures.
2. Prophets: A Prophet is one that, along with the Apostle, has a senior role of direction and influence in the Body of Christ. The office of a prophet has a different distinction to the gift of prophecy in that it is a specific role, rather than just a gift. We know Old Testament prophets for some of the most fantastical declarations about future events, sometimes hundreds of years before they happen. Many people get the impression that the prophetic gift to the Church has the same predictive aim. But the prophetic gift does not need to incorporate predictive capabilities. In fact, Old Testament prophets addressed their culture when its priorities didn't match God's law and commandments. They called out the wickedness and injustices of their culture. This is the priority of prophets in today's world. If you see that injustices around you don't line up with biblical values, and address them, then you may have the prophetic gift. Prophets function in the Church to keep her from going astray, taking on the values of the world instead of godly values.
3. Evangelists: Jesus expects every Christian to be an evangelist. But the gift of evangelists for the Church takes the Great Commission for all of us and sets it on fire in evangelists. Evangelists are not just well-equipped to reach the lost, but teach others how to be more effective in evangelism. They lead in witnessing about Christ and see greater results than most Christians. The Holy Spirit speaks through them to the worldliness of this culture. Their testimonies are powerful, and unbelievers notice their lifestyle evangelism. But they are not better than other Christians. They only have the gift to lead in evangelism and teach the rest of us to be more effective in our witnessing efforts. God gives them new ideas on how to reach this world for Christ.
4. Pastors: The original word for pastors carries the idea of shepherds. Pastors have a gift for shepherding God's people, caring for the flock of God's sheep. They protect us from false doctrine and worldliness. They lead us into the blessings and promises of God. These spiritual leaders give direction and vision to God's desires for us. They are leaders of churches. They heal and counsel, serving the needs of those who experienced spiritual, emotional, financial, and relational abuse. Pastors have a massive job, and some people don't make it any easier. They deal with the underbelly of the church, Christians who do not act like Christians, and we must be thankful they are willing to serve as spiritual leaders.

14. MINISTRIES & FELLOWSHIPS

A. Children's Ministry

Parents are requested to send their children to the Sunday School with Bibles, Note Books & Biro. Please instruct your children to remain in the Sunday School and not wander about looking for things to buy. Children are better and safer in the Sunday School.

5. Teachers: Scholars debate whether pastors and teachers go together because of the wording Paul uses to describe the fivefold ministry. They think pastors and teachers may be one gift instead of two. But most people see them as separate functions in the Church. While pastors may also be teachers, not all teachers are shepherds. Teachers expound the Word of God. They help us understand and apply the Bible to our lives. They illustrate biblical principles and help people understand God's expectations. Teachers keep the Bible interesting and bring it to life. They provide biblical wisdom and help us grow in godliness. Teachers may teach prophetically. But this teaching gift stands alone many times as they show us what the Bible says and how to use it in our lives.

Conclusion: The fivefold ministry leadership gifts prepare the Church for the Spirit's purposes. He has given these pioneers to the Church to lead her in the areas of new works, addressing the culture, witnessing to the lost, shepherding the body, and expounding God's Word. Let us be thankful that the Holy Spirit leads through the leadership gifts, given people with these gifts to the Church. Where would we be without the leadership of these five gifts? Do you see something in these gifts in yourself? Perhaps you have one of the five leadership gifts, you can pray and ask God to help you fan it to flame.
