2. SENTENCES FOR SUNDAY BEFORE ADVENT

Introductory Sentence

The Lord is my strength and my song, and He has become my salvation. Isaiah 12:2.

Collects for the Week:

God our Father, Your Son came in love to deliver us and to equip us for eternal life: free us from all that hinders us from running the race You have set before us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

So also Christ died only as a sacrifice to take away the sins of many people. He will come again but not to deal with our sins again. This time He will bring salvation to all those who are eagerly waiting for Him.

Hebrews 9:28.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

3. LET THERE BE PEACE (ADAPTED)

Let there be PEACE shared among us
Let there be Peace in our hearts
May NOW your Peace sweep this church
Cause us O Lord to Arise
Give us a fresh understanding
Of Brotherly Peace that is Real
Let there be Peace shared among us
Let there be Peace.

4. PRAYER POINTS FOR TODAY – SUNDAY, 20TH NOVEMBER, 2022

 - ii. For the Rt. Rev. Jacob O.B. Bada, his family and all members of the Diocese of Akoko.

B. Prayer for Nigeria & the World

- i. Pray that the Lord of Host in His mercies will on account of His elects and remnants in Nigeria frustrate every raging from the pit of hell and all evil counsels, gang-ups and schemes in form of Boko Haram, Herdsmen and Islamization agenda so that Christianity in Nigeria will never go the way of TURKEY nor NORTH AFRICA in Jesus Name. Amen.
- ii. That the knowledge of God shall fill the earth and that Nigeria shall not be left out.
- iii. Let the power of God break asunder every plan and agenda of the devil over Nigeria.
- iv. That the God of peace shall not forsake us in Nigeria.

THEME: THE COMING GREAT AND TERRIBLE

READINGS: JOEL 2:1-2 & 11, ZEPHANIAH 1:14-18, 1 THESS 5:1-11, MATTHEW 13:24-32

INTRODUCTION

Joel 2:1-2, 11 "Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in My holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the day of the LORD is coming, for it is at hand: A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, like the morning clouds spread over the mountains. A people come, great and strong, the like of whom has never been; nor there ever be any such after them, even for many successive generations. The LORD gives voice before His army, for His camp is very great; for strong is the One who executes His word. For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; who can endure it?"

Joel's message contains powerful warnings of punishment and destruction from God to wake people from their apathy and sin so they can turn to God and be delivered. This terrifying invading army is unstoppable; no human defenses can withstand it. The only solution is to turn to God. The Day of the Lord is mentioned throughout the Bible. It is the theme of the book of Joel. It is also the theme of the book of Revelation, where the plagues and battles are described in much more detail through the seven trumpets and the seven last plagues.

The Day of the Lord.

In the book of Revelation, John, who recorded what he saw in vision, begins by explaining whose revelation it was (it was the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God the Father gave Him, Revelation 1:1), who he was sending the message to (initially, seven churches in Asia, verse 4) and where he was (the island of Patmos, verse 9) when he received the vision. Here the Lord's Day is another way of saying the Day of the Lord—a time when God will intervene in world affairs to bring punishment to mankind for disobedience to His laws and to offer salvation to all who will repent of their sins. While many scriptures describe the Day of the Lord as God's wrath, we should note that the "Lord's Day" (as John's vision is described in Revelation 1:10) includes more than just

When God created Adam and Eve, He gave them free will. God gave them the opportunity to choose how they would live. Of course, God continues to give us and all humanity this same freedom to choose what we will do. Unfortunately, Adam and Eve chose to reject God's instruction not to eat of the forbidden tree in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 3). Sadly, we humans have all followed Adam and Eve's tragic example of disobedience to God. As Paul wrote, "all have sinned" (Romans 3:23) and thus deserve death (Romans 6:23). The Bible is so very clear on this. There will indeed be a final day of judgment. There is no doubt about it. There is so much in a scripture about this. It's constantly referred to as a day. A day of judgment. In other words, a single point at the end, which will end it all. Human history as we know it will be brought to an end. The dead will be judged. The people of God brought into eternal blessing, and the wicked brought into eternal damnation. So much Scripture on this "day." Old Testament and New Testament are abundantly united in passage after passage about this coming day. So we believe it will come and it is closer than we can imagine. In its broadest sense, the Day of the Lord simply refers to the era wherein God will take control of the earth.

The Day of the Lord is a call to repent

This should cause us all to pause. It should strike us a great and dreadful day. This should spark in us all a beginning sense of the fear of God. And yet this is why our generation today needs to hear this. It seems there is so little fear of God in our culture. People want to invent a god today of their own choosing. One for which they would never need to have any sort of fear. But that's not a Biblical picture of the one true God. The God of justice will come and bring a terrible judgment on the wicked.

The prophet Joel wrote: "Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in My holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the day of the LORD is coming, for it is at hand.

"Now, therefore," says the LORD, 'Turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning.' So rend your hearts, and not your garments; return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness; and He relents from doing harm" (Joel 2:1, 12-13).

Unfortunately, human nature is such that the majority of mankind is going to be deceived into fighting against Christ when He returns (Zechariah 14:1-3; Revelation 17:12-14). And then, as Christ delivers punishment after punishment, humans are still going to refuse to repent (Revelation 16:9, Revelation 16:11, Revelation 16:21).

Noting this hardened resistance to God, the apostle Paul wrote: "For the wrath of God [part of the Day of the Lord] is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness" (Romans 1:18). It is going to take a series of punishments from God to get through to humans that they must repent of their evil deeds and live as God commands. And so the response commended to this coming day is one of repentance. Turn back to God

When is the Day of the Lord?

1 Thessalonians 5:1-2 NIV

Now, brothers and sisters, about times and dates we do not need to write to you, for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

From this verse we see, that no one can put a date to it. So do not be deceived by the wave of fake prophecies about when the Lord will return. But we know it will come as recorded in the scriptures and it is closer than when we first believed. So as we wait, we keep watching and praying. Holding steadfastly to the faith and ensuring that what we have received is not taken away. As we wait we continue to declare to the world the message of Salvation that Jesus brought. As we wait, we continue in prayers and in the study of the word. We continue to do all that we can to keep ourselves well positioned for the return of the Master.

Conclusion

In one way, we can be thankful that that Day has not yet come. Would we have been ready if it had? As the days darken toward the return of the King of kings, Christians need to heed the warnings embedded in these latest disasters and repent of their sins and move even closer to God. Christ is preparing His Bride, and she will make herself ready for His glorious appearing (Revelation 19:7). If we desire to be part of that Bride, we should do as the apostle Paul advises in Ephesians 5:15-16: "See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil." Jesus gave us a WARNING and an instruction to WATCH "world events" concerning this "DAY"! Notice: "Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Are you watching?"

HYMN FOR DOXOLOGY - (CONH 491)

1. Let Your blessings, Lord, attend us,
As we go out of this place,
And abiding in Your presence
Basking in Your joy and grace.
2. Let us in Your sight find favour
In all on which our hands lay
Make Your face Lord shine upon us
As You lead us on our way.
3. May Your heavenly peace surround us
Turn our darkness into light,
Give us strength, now and forever
So, to live within Your might.
4. God, our compassionate Father,
Look upon us with mercy
Let Your Name receive our praises
Now and for eternity. Amen.
