6. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 16TH APRIL, 2023

THEME: THE CHRISTIAN'S LIVING HOPE

READING: EXODUS 15:1-11; 1 PETER 1:3-9;
PSALM 34:1-10; LUKE 24:1-12.

The topic today is THE CHRISTIAN LIVING HOPE. And we are going to build on the scriptures (1 Peter 1:3-4) below

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you,

To have hope is to have an Expectation. To have hope is to be in Anticipation of something. Hope is to cherish a desire with anticipation Hope is the confident expectation of what God has promised and His ability to fulfil it. The Christian's hope is completely different from worldly hope. Our hope should be built on nothing else but Christ the solid rock. All other grounds aside from Christ will eventually be sinking sands.

The Greek term for "hope" as seen in the passage means "an eager, confident expectation." It is a hope that lives on. It goes on. It is endlessness. Unlike the empty, dead hope of this world, this "living hope" is energizing, alive, and active in the soul of the Christian.

As we look at the LIVING HOPE, we can deduce four sources of the living hope from 1 Peter 1:3 and 4 and they are GREAT MERCY, NEW BIRTH, RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ and an INHERITANCE that can never perish.

Firstly, Salvation is a gift of God's mercy. it is a product of God's mercy. It is a privilege and not what we automatically deserve. But we must not take the mercy for granted, it must be embraced.

Secondly, the "new birth" provides our living hope, we experience rebirth not because of who we are or anything we have done. The new birth changes who we are by making us dead to sin and alive to righteousness in Jesus Christ. This new birth serves as our reason for hope—the assurance of salvation.

Thirdly. Believers are given “a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.” We are born of God through Jesus’ resurrection from the dead. If Jesus did not die and resurrect, we don’t have hope in both worlds.

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. We are expected to have hope in both worlds (earth and eternal). Our life is hidden with Christ in God”.

In union with Christ, the indestructible life that can never die again is ours — a living hope. When we become united to Christ in His death and resurrection- His death counts for ours, and we are united to his life. His life counts for ours so that we are with him forever in an indestructible life.

The last source of our living hope is described in 1 Peter 1:4 as “an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for us” . We have an inheritance that will never be touched by death, stained by evil, or faded with time; it is death-proof, sin-proof, and age-proof.

This inheritance is also fail-proof because God guards and preserves it in heaven for us. It is wholly secure. Absolutely nothing can undermine the certainty of our future inheritance.

I know you must have sang this hymn (My hope is built on Nothing less) severally. Kindly look again at the hymn MEDITATIVELY, look at the hymn line by line. And draw earthly and eternal strength (living hope) from the hymn.

1. *My Hope is built on nothingless
than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
but wholly lean on Jesus' name.*

Refrain:
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand:
all other ground is sinking sand;

2. *When darkness veils his lovely face,
I rest on his unchanging grace;
in every high and stormy gale,
my anchor holds within the veil.*

4. *When he shall come with trumpet sound,
O may I then in him be found:
