4. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 23RD JULY, 2023
THEME: SHOWING LOVE TO ONE'S ENEMIES
READING: PSALM 119:49-64; EZEKIEL 36:24-28;
GALATIANS 5:16-26; LUKE 6:27-38.

You are welcome to church in the precious name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Today is the first day of the three prophetic Sunday Services, I pray that every word said in prayer will turn to testimony .

The subject of love is a mystery we must learn and understand. The reality of love is deeper beyond the picture our society and the world at large had painted over the years. Love from human's perspective gives you the liberty to choose whosoever you want to relate with, share your belongings with and can go extra miles just for that person to be comfortable and less burdened.

There is this category of love that has become a cancer which must be treated urgently before it gets out of hands. Its not a big issue in the world but its gradually eating deep into the church unnoticed. I called it "Self-centered demonstration of love".

The system runs in a way that people only extend love to those who has what it takes to pay them back, they see only those who are well to do as humans, they want to be there for them in time of their little distress because they are sure of payback time in double folds, meanwhile those who seems to be nothing in terms of material and wealth possessions are treated as second class citizens.

In 1 Corinthians chapter 13 which is mostly referred to as love chapter highlights the qualities of agape love as follows: "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres."

According to this passage, love is characterized by qualities such as patience, kindness, humility, and selflessness. It involves treating others with respect and not seeking personal gain at the expense of others. Love is forgiving, not holding grudges, and is focused on truth and righteousness. It is enduring, hopeful, and steadfast.

Today, we bring to mind again, the Jesus' kind of love, his teachings about love, what He stands for and His commands toward believers on the subject of love. Paraphrasing now, Jesus mandated us to show love to those, who in no way has ever shown love to us but instead pronounced hatred in all their dealings towards us. (Matt.5.43 – 44) “You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy; But I tell you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,” If all we can do is love the lovable, we have not done anything extraordinary or demonstrate the God-kind of love.

If we only treat well and shower love on those who do good to us or can repay us our good deeds. such acts are of no importance in His sight, of course it attracts no reward (Luke 6:27-35).

We must not forget that:

- LOVE is a person (1 John 4:8): the person of God is love, the vocal track record of his manifestation is the gift of Jesus to die for our sins. If He is our father as we claim and confess, then it must not be difficult for us to show love to others.
- LOVE is a spirit: One best gift of God for believers after that of Jesus is the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the best teacher who has the capacity to teach all truths, lead to do the right things and as well convict us when we err so as to bring us back to the right path.

One of the fruits of the Holy Spirit is love (Gal 5:22). You cannot have the Holy Spirit and your characters are devoid of love, its only signifies you're still faking your encounter with the person of Jesus. There is need for you to have a change of heart (Ezekiel 36:26), so you can live the life that God demand of you, a life characterized by love, even, for one's enemies.

Receive Grace to live God's kind of life henceforth, in Jesus name. Amen. Shalom
