Do not return evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary bless, for to this you have been called, that you may obtain a blessing. 1 Peter 3:9.

Collects for the Week:

God, of our forebearers, as Your chosen servant Abraham was given faith to obey Your call and go out into the unknown, so may Your church be granted such faith that we may follow You courageously now and for ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, without You we are not able to please You. Mercifully grant that Your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

READING: PSALM 119:17-32; GENESIS 12:1-9;
ROMANS 12:1-8; LUKE 15:11-32.

We thank God for the privilege to see another Sunday, May the name of the Lord be praised forever. Today we shall be admonishing ourselves on the theme: Wandering away from godly control. To wander away from God is to leave, depart, or stray from God. In today's Gospel, we are introduced to a young man who desired to be independent of his father and asked for his inheritance while the father was still alive.

This foolish man was certain he will be better off on his own. Hence after collecting his inheritance, he went to a distant country away from his home. There he squandered his wealth in wild living. His pleasures lasted only for a season because soon he lost everything. There was a severe famine in that land that made the situation worse. Shortly after he found himself with the demeaning job of feeding the Swine (unclean animals for the Jews). After which he realised himself and return to his father.

To wander away from godly control could mean:

- (I) To think independently of God. This draws you away from God. (Compare Luke 15:11-12 with Isaiah 53:6)
- (II) The absence of God, which results from the drifting, leaves a spiritual emptiness in you that worldly pleasures cannot satisfy. (Compare Luke 15:13-14 with Jeremiah 2:13)
- (III) The struggle to satisfy oneself (Compare Luke 15:15-16 with Revelation 3:17)

A life independent of God is actually a life separated from God's love, fellowship, and authority. In fact, true independence comes only when you totally and voluntarily surrender yourself to God's will.

Here are few signs to watch out for that shows you are wandering away from God as a believer.

1. When you are easily irritated: When things that bring you joy like fellowshiping with brethren, praying, studying the word etc. are not fulfilling again.
2. When falling into temptations (1 Cor. 10:13): When you as a believer are not able to overcome temptations but fall into temptations daily, then this is a sign that you are not hearing from God again because God will always make a way for you to escape all forms of temptations.

7.

3. Negative thoughts: When you allow negative thoughts to develop in your mind and you allow it to grow steadily without making effort to discontinue its growth in your mind.
4. Neglect to read the word of God. (1 Pet. 2:2) When you begin to develop laziness in reading the word or giving excuses and procrastination in learning at God's feet.
5. No interest in attending church activities: When you begin to lose interest in doing the things that populate the kingdom of God or edify the faith of fellow believers.
6. Divine Ministration doesn't move you again: Godly ministration from the pulpit are meant to lead us to repentance or grow our faith in God, but when we get to hear the word, but the word doesn't penetrate our inner being.
7. Not consulting God to know His will: When you began to do things as a Christian without consulting God's will on the matter or make decisions without checking if they are in line with God's will for your life.
8. Conforming to worldly standards: when we began to do thing the world's way and conforming to worldly standard of doing things on earth, the actions will make us unholy and unfit for the master's use.

Haven identified some of the signs that indicates wandering away from godly control, how do you get yourself back on track with God. Here are few steps that will help renew your mind.

- Step 1: Ask the Lord to guard and direct your mind (Rom. 12:2): The object of your regular thinking will determine how your days, years, and ultimately my life plays out. Everything starts in the mind.
- Step 2: Recognize the source of self-focused and self-defeating thoughts: Given that your behaviour begins in your mind, and the mind is where spiritual transformation happens. Then fight the battle with the word of God in your mind.
- Step 3: Replace self-focused thinking with a God-focused mindset: To focus your mind on God requires some work. You must take purposeful action to set your mind on Jesus Christ.
- Step 4: Rest in the truth that you are free in Jesus Christ. And continue to guard your mind with the word of God.

In conclusion, take a sincere look into your life and identify areas where you have drifted away from God, and as the prodigal son recognised himself and return to his father, God is ever ready to accept and help you out of this mess. He's waiting patiently for your return. Do not harden your heart, instead admit you can't help yourself and embrace the help of God.

A TIME LIKE THIS

1. A time like this, God looks for men,
Worthy vessels that He will use;
To accomplish, His great purpose
And make His kingdom widely known.
Chorus: Lord here I am myself I give:
My TALENT, TIME, SILVER &
GOLD,
Father use me, to build your
Church,
To show your praise among all men.
2. A time like this, Lord help me hear
Your thundering voice and do obey
Where some have failed, other abscond
Lord help me stand what'er the cost.
3. A time like this, a warfare time
When champions rise, and other fall
Satan fights his final battles
Making the race so tough to run.
4. A time like this, I'll fix my eyes
On thee alone, lest I should fall
Living for thee, father of love
Until I end my journey home.
