God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, and He has entrusted us with the message of reconciliation.

II Corinthians 5:19

Collects for the Week:

Almighty Father, who called Your Church to witness that You were in Christ reconciling men to Yourself, help us to proclaim the Good News of Your love, that all who hear it may be reconciled to You; through Him who died for us and rose again and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit One God, now and forever. Amen

Post Communion Sentence

You are the light of the world, a city set on a hill cannot be hid. Matthew 5:14.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

4. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 20TH AUGUST, 2023

THEME: NEW LIFE IN CHRIST
READING: PSALM 119:113-128; ISAIAH 49:1-6;
II CORINTHIANS 5:14-6:2; JOHN 17:20-26.

The new life in Christ is a transformative experience. It is a radical change that occurs when a person encounters Christ and accepts Him as their Lord and Savior. This new life brings about a complete shift in one's perspective, values, and behavior.

Understanding the New Life in Christ:

The new life in Christ signifies a radical departure from the old, sinful nature that once governed our lives. It is an end to our former way of living, where we were driven by our own desires and selfish ambitions. In 1 Timothy 1:13, the apostle Paul acknowledges his own transformation, stating that he was once a blasphemer, persecutor, and violent man, but through Christ, he received mercy and experienced a complete change of heart.

Furthermore, the new life in Christ involves letting go of things that we once valued but are detrimental to our Christian faith. In Philippians 3:7-8, Paul declares that he counted all his former achievements and worldly possessions as loss for the sake of knowing Christ. This demonstrates the abandonment of worldly pursuits and the embrace of a new life centered on Christ.

Moreover, the new life in Christ entails putting to death the old nature of sin within us. The old creation was marred by sin and condemned because of Adam's disobedience. However, through the obedience of Jesus Christ, the new creation is marked by righteousness and salvation (Romans 5:12-21). This means that we are empowered to resist and overcome the pull of sin in our lives.

Additionally, the new life in Christ ushers us into a new government, a new dispensation, and a new era of grace with God. In the Garden of Eden, humanity lost its dominion to the devil, and a kingdom of rebellion against God was established. This kingdom, ruled by the "god of this age" (2 Corinthians 4:4), operates through spiritual forces of darkness (Ephesians 6:12). However, through the new life in Christ, we are translated from the kingdom of darkness to the kingdom of light (Colossians 1:13). We are no longer bound by the law of sin and death but are governed by the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus (Romans 8:2-4).

Why We Need the New Life in Christ:

We need the new life in Christ because, as fallen creatures, we are inherently enslaved to sin and separated from God. Our natural inclinations lead us away from spiritual things and towards self-destructive behaviors (Romans 8:5-8). A life without Christ may offer temporary pleasures but ultimately leads to eternal separation from God (Daniel 12:2). Only through the new life in Christ can we experience true fulfillment, regain our God-given dominion mandate (Luke 10:19; 2 Corinthians 10:4), carry the divine peace that surpasses all understanding (John 14:27), and manifest His glory (John 17:22).

The Call to Experience and Live the New Life:

The invitation to experience the new life in Christ is extended to all. Jesus Himself beckons us in Matthew 11:28 to come to Him, and through repentance and acceptance of Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, we can enter into this new life. Repentance involves not only acknowledging our sins but also turning away from them and choosing to follow Jesus. It's a recognition of our brokenness and our need for a Savior.

Acceptance of Jesus as Lord and Savior means believing that Jesus is the Son of God, who died on the cross for our sins and was raised from the dead, and then surrendering control of our lives to Him. This is beautifully encapsulated in Romans 10:9-10, "If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved."

Living the New Life in Christ:

Entering into a new life in Christ is not a one-time event but an ongoing journey. It's about deepening our relationship with God and growing in our faith.

1. Growth in the Word: A crucial part of this new life involves immersing ourselves in the Bible, which is the inspired Word of God. It contains the teachings and commandments that guide our lives and help us to grow in understanding and wisdom. "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness" (2 Timothy 3:16).
2. Prayer: Prayer is our direct line of communication with God. It's a way for us to express our gratitude, confess our sins, seek guidance, and intercede for others. Jesus taught His disciples to pray and emphasized the importance of persistent, heartfelt prayer (Luke 11:1-13).
3. Fellowship: Our new life in Christ also involves fellowship with other believers. We are encouraged to meet regularly with other Christians for worship, encouragement, and mutual support (Hebrews 10:24-25). The early church in the Book of Acts provides a great model of such fellowship.
4. Service: Jesus taught His followers to serve others selflessly. As Christians, we are called to demonstrate God's love through acts of kindness and service (Matthew 20:26-28).

In conclusion, the new life in Christ is a vibrant, dynamic relationship with God. It brings a radical transformation that affects every aspect of our lives. We become new creations, no longer bound by sin but free to live a life of purpose, peace, and righteousness in Christ. This new life is not without challenges, but we are not alone.
