Collects for the Week:

Almighty and everlasting God, You have given us Your servants grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may ever more be defended from all adversities, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty and eternal God, You have revealed Yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reigns in the perfect unity of love. 4. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 15TH JUNE, 2025

THEME: THE MYSTERY OF THE GOD HEAD

READING: PSALM 29; PROVERBS 8:22-29;
EPHESIANS 1:3-14; JOHN 14:8-17.

The Lord is here! His Spirit is with us! It is Trinity Sunday. It is time to consider the Godhead of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, Three Persons in ONE God. May his name be praised forever and ever. Amen.

Our Focus for meditation this week will be on "The Mystery of the God Head".

Worshipping the true God requires at least minimal knowledge about who He is. And while none of us can understand God completely, He has revealed some truths about Himself in Scripture in a way we can understand. As Christians, we should want to understand God's revelation of His own character as clearly as possible. The Trinity is at the heart of God's self-revelation.

But the Trinity is one of the most easily misunderstood doctrines; even many Christians are uncertain of what the Trinity means. Many unwittingly hold to doctrines that have been condemned as either heresy or serious error throughout Church history. Others are aware of the heterodox nature of their beliefs, but insist it was the Church, not the heretics, who were mistaken. In an era where theological teaching is often underemphasized in the Church, it is not surprising that there are fewer today than in the past who can confidently say what the Bible teaches about the Trinity.

Anti-Trinitarians will point out that the word 'Trinity' is not in the Bible anywhere—and they are correct. It is a technical term that arose later to communicate the entirety of the Bible's teaching about the triune nature of God without having to spell it all out every time. But each facet of the Bible's teaching on the Trinity is present in Scripture. These facets are:

The apostle Paul affirms that "God is one" (Romans 3:30). He says, "There is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist" (1 Corinthians 8:6). He writes elsewhere, "For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Jesus Christ" (1 Timothy 2:5). James, the half-brother of Jesus, also acknowledges "You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe and shudder!" (James 2:19). But even though James is speaking about the importance of having more than just doctrinal correctness, the people to whom he is writing "do well" to believe that God is one.

Even in Genesis, we see an indication of the plurality of the Godhead—meaning that God is made up of more than one Person.

God is the only appropriate object of worship. Angels are not to be worshipped (Colossians 2:18), and the holy angels refuse worship (Revelation 19:10; 22:8–9). Neither are the sun, moon, or stars to be worshipped (Deuteronomy 17:3). Idols are not to be worshipped (Leviticus 19:4). People are not to be worshipped either; the apostles never permitted themselves to be worshipped (Acts 10:25–26; 14:13–18). Herod is struck down for the sin of accepting worship (Acts 12:20–24).

But as we can see, it is not just God the Father that deserves to be worshipped. God the Son (Jesus) and God the Holy Spirit also receive praise and worship in Scripture. So if the Bible presents the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit as appropriate objects of worship, they all must be God.

So "God is one" and "God is a Trinity". But some people are confused about how the Persons of the Godhead relate to each other. The Bible teaches that each Person is fully God and shares all the attributes of deity.
