CONH 418

1 I'm pressing on the upward way
New heights I'm gaining everyday
Still praying as I onward bound
Lord plant my feet on higher ground
Ref: Lord, lift me up and let me stand
By faith on heaven's table land
A higher ground than I have found
Lord plant my feet on higher ground

2. My heart has no desire to stay
Where doubt arise and fears dismay
Though some may dwell where this abound
My prayer, my aim is higher ground.

3. I want to live above the world
Though Satan's darts at me are hurled
For faith has caught the joyful sound
The songs of saints on higher ground.

4. I want to scale the utmost height
And catch a gleams of glory bright
But still I'll pray till heaven I've found
Lord lead me on to higher ground. Amen

THEME: THE NATURE OF TRUE OBEDIENCE
READING: PSALM 125; EXODUS 20:1-20; ROMANS 8:12-17; MATTHEW 21:28-32

Obedience is one of the fundamental duties required of every human being. Ecclesiastes 12:13 captures this truth by declaring that the whole duty of man is to fear God and keep His commandments. Yet, despite its great importance, many people neither obey God nor truly understand what genuine obedience means. Obedience can either be genuine or false. This is why we are focusing on the nature of true obedience. True obedience is not vague or hidden, it is something that can be discerned and recognized. Your obedience must be genuine, free from pretence and hypocrisy (Matt. 15:8–9). The focus of this theme is to help us examine whether our obedience to God is true or merely outward. Genuine obedience bears certain marks—indicators, signs, traits, or attributes—which we shall be exploring.

1. Absolute Surrender to God's Will: True obedience means placing God's will above your own and treating it as your highest priority. When you value His will more than any other, you demonstrate genuine obedience. Have you reached the point where God's will matters more than anything else? This is a vital question for anyone seeking to grow in obedience. May God's grace strengthen you to overcome every struggle and fully yield to His will (Matt. 26:39).

2. True obedience is sacrificial: It often comes with pain and difficulty. It cost Jesus His precious life; He gave Himself for you and me. Abraham also left his country and family to follow God's call (Gen. 12:1–4). At an old age, he chose obedience over comfort, showing that sacrifice is inseparable from true obedience. Those who truly obey God always give up something. So, are you willing to sacrifice? The higher you desire to go in life, the greater the sacrifice required (Matt. 19:27).

2. Obedience is an Expression of Love for the King: In John 14:15, Jesus said, "If you love Me, keep My commandments."True obedience goes beyond mere compliance with instructions; it flows from a heart that trusts and loves God. It is not about doing things because we are forced to, but because we desire to please our Heavenly Father. Abraham demonstrated this kind of obedience when he followed God's call without knowing where he was going (Hebrews 11:8).

3. Obedience as an Expression of Faith in God: Faith compels you to follow the King's leading, even when the outcome is uncertain (Hebrews 11:8). When you obey God despite not knowing how things will turn out, you are demonstrating complete trust in Him. Obedience is often challenging, it may require choosing the harder path when an easier one is available. Yet, your decision to obey, even when it doesn't make sense, reveals your faith. True obedience is, therefore, a powerful expression of faith in God.

4. True obedience is immediate, complete, and done with the right attitude. It is not delayed, selective, or conditional. When we obey God even when we do not fully understand His ways, we show that we truly trust Him. Every act of obedience draws us closer to God and positions us for His blessings.

To walk in true obedience is to align our will with God's will—acknowledging that His way is perfect and His commands are for our good. "If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land." (Isaiah 1:19).
