Look up and raise your heads because your redemption is drawing near. Luke 21:28.

Collects for the Week:

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which Your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility so that on the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious majesty; to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through Him who is alive and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. Romans 13:11.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

5. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 2025

THEME: IMPLICATIONS OF CHRIST'S SECOND COMING FOR CHRISTIAN

READING: PSALM 122; ISAIAH 2:1-5;
ROMANS 13:8-14; MATTHEW 24:36-44.

We give glory to God Almighty for bringing us to 2026 Advent Sunday. Advent is the sacred Christian season that marks a time of expectant waiting, preparation, and reflection on both the first and second coming of Jesus Christ. While we celebrate His humble birth in Bethlehem, Advent also points our hearts toward His return in glory. It reminds believers that history is moving toward a divine culmination and that every disciple must live in readiness, holiness, and hope.

The Second Coming of Christ is one of the most profound doctrines of the Christian faith. Jesus Himself teaches in Matthew 24:36-44 that no one knows the day or the hour, not even the angels. This divine uncertainty calls the believer to a life of constant spiritual vigilance.

The first implication of His return, therefore, is watchfulness. Believers must remain awake spiritually, refusing to be distracted by the cares of the world or the deceitfulness of sin. A watchful Christian guards the heart, nurtures prayer, and remains sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit in all matters of life.

Secondly, Christ's return demands holiness and righteous living. Since the Lord may come at an unexpected hour, Christians are urged to maintain purity in conduct, speech, and thought. The awareness that Jesus could appear at any moment should inspire integrity in private and public life. Holiness becomes not merely a doctrine, but a lifestyle shaped by the reality of His imminent return. That is, His expectant coming inspires our disposition to life issues.

Thirdly, the Second Coming inspires hope and perseverance. In a world full of trials, injustice, and uncertainties, believers are strengthened by the assurance that Christ will return to establish His eternal kingdom.

Every tear will be wiped away, and righteousness will reign. This blessed hope empowers Christians to endure hardship, remain faithful, and serve God passionately. 1Corinthians assures us that without the hope of resurrection in Christ, our faith is empty and life losses true meaning Christ's coming has evangelistic implications. Knowing that time is limited should stir believers to share the gospel with urgency and love. The message of salvation becomes a sacred responsibility. Therefore, Advent calls us not only to remember the Christ who came but to prepare for the Christ who is coming again.

May this blessed hope shape our daily lives as we watch, walk in holiness, persevere, and proclaim His salvation.

In conclusion, Christians are to prepare for Christ's Second Coming by living holy lives (1 Peter 1:15-16), watching in prayer (Luke 21:36), remaining steadfast in faith (1 Corinthians 16:13), bearing spiritual fruit (John 15:8), and sharing the gospel urgently (Matthew 28:19-20), knowing His return is certain (Revelation 22:12). Shalom!
