2. SENTENCES FOR QUINQUAGESIMA

Introductory Sentence

So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. 1 John 4:16.

Collect:

Almighty God, the Redeemer of all who trust in You; give heed to the cry of Your people, deliver us from the bondage of sin that we may serve You in perfect freedom and rejoice in Your unfailing love; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

Post Communion Sentence

The Lord is good to all, He has compassion on all He has made
Psalms 145:9.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

3. LET THERE BE PEACE (ADAPTED)

Let there be PEACE shared among us
Let there be Peace in our hearts
May NOW your Peace sweep this church
Cause us O Lord to Arise
Give us a fresh understanding
Of Brotherly Peace that is Real
Let there be Peace shared among us
Let there be Peace.

THEME: REPENTANCE INEVITABLE FOR SALVATION

READING: PSALM 99:4-9; HOSEA 14:1-7; COLOSSIANS 1:18-23; MARK 2:13-17.

One truth every believer must hold firmly is this: repentance is not optional in salvation—it is inevitable. It is the doorway through which every soul must pass if reconciliation with God will ever become a reality. Salvation is not merely joining a church, changing habits, or adopting religious language. Salvation is the restoration of a broken relationship between a holy God and sinful man—and such restoration cannot happen without repentance.

The Apostle Paul paints a sobering picture in Colossians 1:19–21, reminding us that before Christ, mankind was not simply weak, but spiritually separated: “alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works.” This describes a condition of hostility toward God. Sin does not merely make man unclean; it makes man distant. It hardens the heart, blinds the mind, and produces actions that oppose the will of God. Therefore, no one can truly encounter Christ and remain the same. The moment salvation begins, a turning must occur.

Repentance is that turning. It is the inward conviction and decision to reject sin and return to God. It is more than regret, more than tears, and more than emotional sorrow. Many people feel bad about sin, yet remain bound by it. True repentance is a spiritual change of direction—a deliberate turning away from the old life and a sincere return to God with humility, obedience, and surrender.

This is why the call of Christ in Mark 1:17 is so powerful: “Come ye after me... and I will make you to become fishers of men.” Jesus did not merely invite the disciples to admire Him; He called them to follow Him. Following Christ required them to leave their former pursuits, their former priorities, and their old identity.

They could not cling to the nets of yesterday and still walk into the destiny of tomorrow. The same principle holds today: where repentance is absent, transformation is impossible.

Repentance is also proof that grace is working. God does not call sinners to repentance to destroy them, but to restore them. Repentance is heaven’s mercy extended to mankind. It is God’s way of saying, “Come back home.” When repentance is genuine, the heart begins to hate what God hates and love what God loves. It produces a desire for holiness, a hunger for righteousness, and a willingness to obey God even when it is costly.

This week, let every heart reflect deeply: Have I truly repented, or have I only become religious? Repentance is the evidence of true conversion. It is the difference between those who merely confess Christ with their mouth and those who follow Him with their lives. The Gospel does not only offer forgiveness; it offers a new life—and repentance is the first step into that life.

May the Lord grant us grace not only to hear His call, but to respond wholeheartedly. For when a man repents, he moves from being an enemy of God to becoming a friend; from being alienated to being reconciled; from being lost to being found.
