2. SENTENCES FOR EASTER SUNDAY

Introductory Sentence

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us, therefore, let us keep the feast with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia!. 1 Corinthians 5:7-8.

Collects for the Week:

Lord of all life and power, Who through the mighty resurrection of Your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in Him: grant that we being dead to sin and alive to You in Jesus Christ, may reign with Him in glory, to whom with You and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

Almighty God, Who through Your Only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: we humbly beseech You that, as by Your special grace going before us, You put into our minds good desires, so by Your continued help we may bring them to good effect, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with You, and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

But God demonstrates His own love for us in this, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us Alleluia.

Romans 5:8.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

3. THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

As we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead, we remember that through the paschal mystery we have died and been buried with Him in baptism, so that we may rise with Him to a new life within the family of His Church. Now that we have completed our observance of Lent, we renew the promises made at our baptism, affirming our allegiance to Christ, and our rejection of all that is evil.

Minister: Therefore, I ask these questions:
Do you turn to Christ?

All: I turn to Christ

Minister: Do you repent of your sins?

All: I repent of my sins

Minister: Do you renounce evil?

All: I renounce evil.

Minister: Let us now proclaim the Christian faith in which we were baptized and in which we live and grow.
Do you believe and trust God the Father, who made the world?

All: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Minister: Do you believe and trust in His Son Jesus Christ who redeemed mankind?

All: I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day He rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come to judge the living and the dead.

Minister: Do you believe and trust in Holy Spirit who gives life to the people of God?

All: I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the Resurrection of the body and life everlasting.

Minister: This is the faith of the Church

All: It is our faith. We believe and trust in One God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Minister: Will you live in obedience to God's laws, as a loyal member of His Church?

All: With God's help, I will.

Then the Minister says one or more of these prayers

Minister: Almighty God, we thank You for our fellowship in the Household of Faith with all those who have been baptised in Your name. Keep us faithful to our Baptism and so make us ready for that day when the whole creation shall be made perfect in Your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Almighty God, Whose Holy Spirit equips the Church with a rich variety of gifts, grant that we may use them to bear witness to Christ by lives built on faith and love. Make us ready to live His Gospel and eager to do His will, that we may share with all Your Church the joy of eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in Your mercy, grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

THEME: EMPTY TOMB AND ITS IMPLICATION

READING: EASTER ANTHEM; ISAIAH 25:6-9; 1 CORINTHIANS 15:12-20; JOHN 20:1-18.

Happy Easter to ua all. Christ is risen, He is risen indeed!

The resurrection narrative in the Gospel of John chapter 20 presents more than the discovery of an empty grave; it unveils the theological core of the Christian faith. When Mary Magdalene arrived at the tomb and found the stone rolled away, what appeared at first to be loss and confusion became the doorway into the greatest revelation of divine power. The subsequent encounter with the risen Christ transforms the empty tomb from a historical detail into a living message with enduring implications.

First, the empty tomb establishes the certainty of the resurrection as the foundation of faith. The Apostle Paul argues rigorously in 1 Corinthians 15:12–14 that if Christ is not risen, then preaching is empty, and faith is futile. The entire Christian structure rests upon this singular truth. John's account is not speculative; it is evidential—an empty tomb, undisturbed grave clothes, and post-resurrection appearances. Thus, the resurrection is not an accessory doctrine; it is the basis of Christian belief. Without it, faith collapses into mere philosophy.

Second, the empty tomb confirms the definitive victory over death. The prophetic anticipation in Isaiah 25:8—“He will swallow up death forever”—finds its fulfillment in the resurrection of Christ. Paul echoes this triumph in 1 Corinthians 15:54–55, declaring death to be swallowed up in victory. In John 20, the absence of Jesus’ body is not loss but conquest; death has been overpowered from within. The grave, once a symbol of finality, is rendered temporary. This shifts death from being a terminal reality to a defeated enemy.

Third, the empty tomb guarantees the future resurrection of believers. Paul advances the argument in 1 Corinthians 15:16–20 that Christ’s resurrection is inseparable from that of His followers. He calls Christ “the firstfruits,” indicating sequence and certainty. What happened in that tomb is the prototype of what will occur for all who are in Him. The resurrection, therefore, is not isolated; it is representative and generative. Just as the tomb could not hold Christ, it will not ultimately hold those who belong to Him.

Fourth, the empty tomb inaugurates a living hope that replaces despair with assurance. Isaiah’s vision in Isaiah 25:9 captures the language of redemption: “Behold, this is our God; we have waited for Him... we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation.” This prophetic joy becomes experiential reality in John 20 when sorrowful weeping gives way to recognition and joy as Mary encounters the risen Lord. The resurrection transforms existential outlook, grief is no longer ultimate, and hope is no longer abstract. It becomes anchored in a living Person.

Fifth, the empty tomb validates the divine authority and identity of Jesus Christ. If Christ had remained in the grave, the claims of His divinity would be nullified. Paul underscores this indirectly in 1 Corinthians 15:15, stating that a denial of the resurrection renders the apostolic witness false. However, the risen Christ encountered in John 20 affirms that He is exactly who He claimed to be, the Son of God with power. The resurrection is thus God’s public vindication of Jesus’ identity and mission.

In conclusion, the empty tomb in John 20 is not merely a narrative of absence but a theological declaration of presence and power. It secures the foundation of faith, announces victory over death, guarantees the resurrection of believers, instills living hope, and validates the identity of Christ.
