5. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
SUNDAY, 20TH SEPTEMBER, 2026

THEME: LOVE: THE PIVOT OF VERTICAL AND HORIZONTAL RELATIONSHIPS

READING: PSALM 63; DEUTERONOMY 6:3-9;
1 JOHN 4:18-5.5; MATTHEW 22:34-40

We welcome you to another day of divine encounter.

May you be richly blessed in Jesus' Name. Amen

Jesus said to him, "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Matthew 22:37-39)

Our Christian life is built around two important relationships: our vertical relationship with God and our horizontal relationship with one another. The vertical relationship speaks of our fellowship with God (loving Him, and walking in obedience to His Word). The horizontal relationship speaks of how we relate with other people i.e loving, serving, forgiving, caring, and living peacefully with one another. The pivot that connects these vertical and horizontal relationships is love. The love we receive from God flows through us and is expressed towards others. As we grow closer to God, His love should shape our relationships with people. Therefore, our love for God must be reflected in the way we love and treat one another.

A closer look at Matt 22:37 reminds us that our devotion to God must be complete and undivided. Jesus calls us to love God with all our heart, soul, and mind, leaving no room for divided loyalty. We demonstrate this love by obeying His Word, giving ourselves faithfully to prayer and worship, serving Him, trusting Him in every circumstance, and putting daily lives. True love for God is not merely expressed in words but demonstrated through a life that honors Him.

Matthew 22:39 also teaches us that our love for God must be reflected in the way we love and treat others. Genuine love for God is demonstrated through kindness, compassion, forgiveness, patience, and genuine concern for the well-being of our neighbors. We show this love by helping those in need, encouraging the discouraged, forgiving those who offend us, respecting others, sharing with those who lack, visiting the sick and elderly, and being willing to support others in times of difficulty. Our love for God becomes visible when those around us experience His love through our words, actions, and attitude.

CALL TO ACTION

Dearly beloved, as you go into this new week, I charge you to intentionally strengthen both your vertical relationship with God and your horizontal relationships with others. Draw closer to God through prayer, worship and obedience, and let His love flow through you in the way you treat, forgive, encourage and care for those around you. May our lives continually testify to the love of Christ and demonstrate that our relationship with God is reflected in our relationship with our fellow brothers and sisters. May the Lord bless, keep, and guide you throughout this week.
