2. SENTENCES FOR TRINITY XXII

Introductory Sentence

Praise our God all you His servant, you fear Him both small and great.

Rev. 19:5

Collect for the Week:

Almighty God, You have knit together Your elect into one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of Your Son: Give us grace so to follow Your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys which You have prepared for those who truly love You, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post Communion Sentence

I heard the noise of a great multitutde, crying Alleluia! The Lord our God has entered into His Kingdom. Happy are those who are called to the supper of the lamb.

Revelation 9:6-9.

TOWARDS THE NEW CATHEDRAL

THE COLLECT:

Heavenly Father we acknowledge the fact that without You, we can do nothing, for except You build, those who are building are doing it in vain. Empower us to build to Your glory and honour O Lord. Provide for us unto overflowing and over abundance. Make way where there seems to be none, silence every spirit of Sanballat and Tobiah and fill us with the anointing of Zerubbabel unto a glorious timely and speedy completion for with You there is no abandoned project. All of these and many more mercies and grace we ask for in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

3. LET THERE BE PEACE (ADAPTED)

Let there be PEACE shared among us
Let there be Peace in our hearts
May NOW your Peace sweep this church
Cause us O Lord to Arise
Give us a fresh understanding
Of Brotherly Peace that is Real
Let there be Peace shared among us
Let there be Peace.

THEME: ASK AND YOU WILL RECEIVE

READING: PSALM 149; JEREMIAH 31:31-34; REVELATION 7:2-4; 9-17; MATTHEW 5:1-12 .

INTRODUCTION

Happy Sunday once again and welcome to the last Sunday in October! God indeed is faithful! We have asked Him to preserve us and He has secured us. Hallelujah!

As beautiful as today's sermon is, may I stress that one thing is bigger than your prayers and asking? THE WILL OF GOD! It is fundamental that every believer acknowledges this before seeking the father.

However, Prayer is one of the greatest privileges God has given to His children. Through prayer, we approach the Almighty God, who possesses unlimited power, rules over all creation, and is able to accomplish what is beyond human understanding. There is no situation too difficult for Him, no problem beyond His wisdom, and no power that can successfully challenge His sovereignty.

However, the fact that God is omnipotent does not mean that Christians should approach Him carelessly or assume that every request must be granted exactly as we desire. God calls us to ask in faith, trust His wisdom, obey His Word, and remain patient in His presence.

The theme "Ask and You Will Receive" therefore challenges us to understand three important truths: the omnipotence of God, the necessity of faith in prayer, and the importance of tarrying in God's presence until we receive His direction, strength, or answer.

1. ASK BECAUSE GOD IS OMNIPOTENT: NOTHING IS TOO DIFFICULT FOR HIM

Scriptures: Jeremiah 32:17; Psalm 149; Luke 1:37

> Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee." — Jeremiah 32:17 (KJV)

The first reason Christians should ask God is that we are not praying to an ordinary being. We are approaching the Almighty God, the Creator of heaven and earth, whose power has no limits and whose authority extends over all creation.

The omnipotence of God means that He is all-powerful. He possesses the power to do whatever is consistent with His holy nature, perfect wisdom, and sovereign will. Human beings have limitations: money can finish, influential people can lose their positions, medical knowledge has boundaries, and human strength can fail. But God is never limited by human weakness or the circumstances that surround us.

When Abraham and Sarah were confronted with the impossibility of having a child at an advanced age, God declared that nothing was too difficult for Him (Genesis 18:10–14). What appeared impossible from a human perspective was not beyond God's power.

Similarly, when the angel announced to Mary that she would conceive Jesus, Mary could not understand how this would happen. The angel responded, "For with God nothing shall be impossible" (Luke 1:37).

What does this mean for Christians?
Do not abandon prayer because your problem appears impossible. Do not allow the limitations of people to determine the extent of your expectations from God. Do not measure God's power by your present circumstances.Approach Him with reverence, knowing that He is powerful enough to help and wise enough to know what is best.

2. ASK IN FAITH: GOD EXPECTS US TO TRUST HIS POWER AND HIS WORD

Hebrews 11:1, 6; James 1:5–8; But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." — Hebrews 11:6 (KJV)

If God's omnipotence establishes that He is able to act, faith enables us to approach Him with confidence in His character and promises.

This is why faith is essential.

In Mark 11:22–24, Jesus instructs His disciples to have faith in God and teaches them about prayer. He directs their attention to God as the object of their faith. Genuine biblical faith does not mean that we can force God to do whatever we want by speaking confidently. Rather, it means that we entrust our requests to Him and believe that He hears us and will respond according to His will.
Why must Christians exercise faith?
* Faith helps us pray without surrendering to fear.
* Faith enables us to trust God's promises even when we cannot see the outcome.
* Faith sustains us when answers are delayed.
* Faith helps us obey God even when obedience is difficult.
* Faith reminds us that God's character remains trustworthy when circumstances change.

Do not allow what you see today to destroy your trust in the God who holds your tomorrow. Pray with confidence, search the Scriptures, obey His instructions, and leave the outcome in His hands. Faith is not the absence of questions or tears; it is the decision to keep trusting God through them.

3. LEARN TO TARRY: WAIT UPON GOD IN PRAYER UNTIL HE STRENGTHENS, DIRECTS, OR ANSWERS YOU

"Men ought always to pray, and not to faint." — Luke 18:1 (KJV)

One of the challenges facing many Christians is the desire for immediate answers. We want to pray today and see the result immediately. When nothing appears to change, we may become discouraged, reduce our commitment to prayer, or conclude that God has forgotten us.

Why must Christians tarry?
A. We tarry because God's timing may differ from ours.
In Luke 18:1–8, Jesus tells the parable of the persistent widow to teach His disciples that they ought always to pray and not lose heart.
Sometimes, God answers quickly. At other times, we must wait. Waiting does not necessarily mean rejection, and delay does not prove that God is powerless. We must continue to seek Him while remaining open to His direction.

We may need His wisdom before making a decision, His strength before undertaking an assignment, or His guidance before taking the next step.

HYMN FOR DOXOLOGY - (CONH 491)

1. Let Your blessings, Lord, attend us,
   As we go out of this place,
   And abiding in Your presence
   Basking in Your joy and grace.

2. Let us in Your sight find favour
   In all on which our hands lay
   Make Your face Lord shine upon us
   As You lead us on our way.

3. May Your heavenly peace surround us
   Turn our darkness into light,
   Give us strength, now and forever
   So, to live within Your might.

4. God, our compassionate Father,
   Look upon us with mercy
   Let Your Name receive our praises
   Now and for eternity. Amen.
